Press Release

January 22, 2025

Due to continued freezing temperatures and melting snow creating hazardous conditions on local roads, all non-emergency Orange County offices will delay opening until 10:00 am on Thursday, January 23, 2025.

The delay is being implemented to ensure the safety of both employees and the public as road conditions remain challenging. Essential services and emergency operations will continue as usual.

Residents and visitors are encouraged to take extra precautions when traveling and to check the Orange County website or social media channels for further updates regarding any additional weather-related delays or closures.
